This Agreement is entered into by all parties referenced above as a legally-binding understanding of the rights and responsibilities of the Roommates. This Agreement is not designed to subvert the rights and responsibilities of the Roommates with regard to any third parties, including the landlord, utility companies, or any other party not subject to this Agreement to whom the Roommates may be contractually bound in any way.

Article 1 - INCORPORATION OF LEASE:

All the Roommates agree to comply with the terms of this Agreement as well as any additional signed lease required for the premises. If any Roommate breaches the lease, it shall be considered a breach of this Agreement as well. If there is any conflict between this Agreement and the lease, the lease shall control.

This Agreement will begin on the _____ and end on _____. After this time period, the Roommates will have the ability to renew this Agreement in writing for a new term.

Article 3 - TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT:

If any Roommate would like to terminate this Agreement prior to the expiration of its natural term, or within the confines of an open-ended term, that Roommate must discuss such termination with each of the other Roommates. The Roommate may be permitted to terminate this Agreement early, subject to finding a replacement for the premises and subject to the remaining terms and conditions in this Agreement, but early termination and dismissal of the responsibilities contained within this Agreement is subject to the consent of each of the other Roommates.

Article 4 - SECURITY DEPOSIT:

The entirety of the security deposit for the space the Roommates are renting is as follows: $2 (two US dollars).

The payment of the security deposit will be split equally between the Roommates. As such, each Roommate will contribute the following amount: $0.33 (thirty-three cents). If the security deposit is returned at the end of the lease term in full, the Roommates will split the security deposit evenly once again and each take their share. If the security deposit is returned less any sum for unpaid rent and/or damages, the Roommates will split the remaining amount equally amongst themselves. No Roommate will be held responsible for any excess share of the damages, unless it has been specifically agreed to by all of the other Roommates in writing prior to the expiration of the lease term.

If any Roommate has caused specific damage to the property or failed to pay rent, the other Roommates together may decide to withhold that portion of the security deposit from the damage-causing Roommate and do not need the damage-causing Roommate's permission to do so.

Article 5 - RENT:

The entirety of the monthly rent for the space the Roommates are renting is as follows: $2 (two US dollars). The rent is to be paid in full to the landlord on the following day of each month: 1st. The following Roommate will be responsible for ensuring rent is delivered properly to the landlord each month and for obtaining a rent receipt so that each of the other Roommates know the rent was paid: _____. If any of the Roommates do not pay their portion of the rent by the date it is due, that Roommate will be responsible for any late charges assessed or any further consequences thereof.

The payment of the rent will be split equally between the Roommates.

Article 6 - UTILITIES:

The payment of the utilities - no matter what utilities the Roommates utilize in their living space - will be split equally between the Roommates. Examples of such possible utilities include, but are not limited to: gas, water, electric, telephone, and/or internet.

The following person will be responsible for managing and getting paid the utilities each month: _____.

Article 7 - EARLY MOVE-OUT:

Roommates that have signed the lease are not permitted to terminate their stay in the dwelling without the possibility of financial consequences, including potentially paying out their share of the rent for the remainder of the lease.

Roommates that are not on the lease hereby agree to give the other Roommates 60 days' written notice in case of move-out. During the 60-day notice period, the Roommate moving out hereby agrees to pay their portion of the rent as well as utilities for the entirety of the 60-day period, whether or not the actual date of departure is 60 days out or a new Roommate moves in.

The Roommate moving out hereby agrees and acknowledges that it is their responsibility to find a replacement Roommate. The other Roommates, as well as the landlord, shall have final approval over the replacement Roommate. The new Roommate must also sign this Agreement, as well as contribute a portion to the security deposit for the dwelling, which portion will go immediately to the departing Roommate. If a replacement Roommate cannot be found, the departing Roommate may not receive their portion of the security deposit back until the natural termination of the lease, and may not be released from any rights and responsibilities with respect to this Roommate agreement.

Article 8 - BOUNCED CHECKS:

reasonable hours, such as during late night hours and early morning hours. Additionally, if any of the Roommates needs specific quiet at any specific times, that Roommate will touch base with the other Roommates to find out if quiet may happen. Each of the Roommates will be reasonable about respecting the other Roommates' need for quiet.
