

Here is a template, totally free of charge!

However, we don't recommend using it.

Like all free templates on the internet, it hasn't been adapted to your specific needs.

Visit our website to easily create a fully personalized document for a low one-time fee.

Our lawyers work hard to keep everything updated and accurate.

You get all of the benefits of a lawyer at a fraction of the cost.

Notice of Cancellation

Date: _____

Recipient Name: _____

Recipient Email: _____

Recipient Address:

Please be advised that your order of the following goods is canceled:

The order was placed on _____.

The above goods are being canceled due to your nonpayment.

Specifically, you owe the following amount, which is as yet unpaid: $2 (two US dollars).

You have now been in default on payment for the following amount of time: _____.

Due to the default, your order of goods is being canceled. Your account with us has also been closed.

To reinstate your order of goods, please contact any of the below contact points. Full payment of the amount owed will need to be made for reinstatement of the order of goods. Your account may also be reinstated if full payment is received.

Payment may be made via any of the following methods:

Email: _____

Phone Number: _____