Re: FTC Identity Theft Complaint

To Whom It May Concern:

I am notifying the FTC that my identity has been stolen and used for fraudulent purposes. This letter is following up on and confirming the conversation I had with a representative of the FTC on _____ regarding the theft of my identity.

To confirm my identity, my social security number is #_____ and my birth date is _____.

Someone has stolen my identity and used that information to engage in the following type(s) of fraudulent transactions:

- Credit card accounts
- Checking and/or savings accounts
- Loans

- Utility accounts
- Investment accounts
- Internet and/or email accounts
- Government documents and/or benefits
- Additional forms of fraud as follows:

_____

The nature of the identity theft incident is as follows:

_____

I have suffered the following form(s) of harm and consequences as a result of this identity theft:

- A civil suit or judgment has been filed against me
- A criminal investigation, arrest, or conviction against me
- I was denied bank, investing, credit, or other financial services
- I was denied a job or lost an existing job
- I have been pursued by debt collectors and/or creditors
- _____

I do not have any information about who I believe to be the identity thief.

I have contacted the following credit bureau(s): _____ for the following purpose(s):

- To inform the credit bureau(s) of the identity theft and to report any resulting fraud
- To put a fraud alert on my credit report
- To freeze my credit
- To order a credit report

I have contacted the police at the following police department: _____ located in the state of Alabama and filed a police report. A copy of the report is enclosed with this letter.

Sincerely,
