State of Alabama

This Digital Assets Trust Agreement (the "Agreement"), between _____ (the "Grantor"), of _____, and _____ (the "Trustee"), of _____.

Grantor has transferred, assigned, conveyed, and delivered and/or will transfer, assign, convey, and deliver to the Trustee the property described in Schedule A attached and made a part hereof; and said property and any and all other property which may be hereafter assigned, conveyed, and delivered to said Trustee by the Grantor or another person as hereinafter provided, is intended to constitute the trust estate and to be held by the Trustee in trust for the uses and purposes and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

4. Grantor, or any other person, with the consent of the Trustee, may at any time or from time to time deed, grant, devise, bequest, gift, or otherwise cause additional property to be transferred to and administered as a part of the trust estate created hereunder. Any such transfer may be evidenced by the receipt of the Trustee, and each such receipt shall be conclusive evidence of the consent of said Trustee to the transfer thereof.

5. The Trustee shall manage and distribute the Trust assets for the benefit of the Grantor and the Grantor's successor(s) in interest in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

V. ADDITIONAL TRUSTEE PROVISIONS.

Such designee shall become the successor Trustee upon acceptance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

7. If at any time a Trustee is unable or unwilling to serve, _____ is designated as the successor Trustee, to serve without bond.

8. Any Trustee may resign by giving written notice to the beneficiaries to whom income is being distributed under the provisions of this Agreement. Such resignation shall take effect on such date specified in the notice, but no earlier than thirty days after the date of delivery of such written resignation unless an earlier effective date is agreed upon by the income beneficiaries.

9. If the Trustee resigns or is for any reason unwilling or unable to serve as Trustee, and if the successor Trustee designated by the Grantor, if any, fails or ceases to serve as Trustee, then the adult beneficiaries to whom income is being distributed, together with the adult beneficiaries to whom principal would be distributed if the Trust were to then terminate, may by majority action in writing appoint a successor Trustee. If the agreement of a majority of the beneficiaries cannot be successfully obtained within sixty days, a successor Trustee shall be appointed by the court having general jurisdiction over the trust. 17. In the event of illness or other disability of the Grantor, the Trustee may, in lieu of making payment of such income directly to the Grantor, use and apply for the benefit of the Grantor so much of such income and also the principal of the Trust estate for the proper care, comfort, medical care, maintenance, and support of the Grantor. The Trustee, in such discretion, may pay over to any relative or legal guardian of the Grantor, all or any portion of such income or principal for any of said purposes in lieu of using and applying said funds for the benefit of the Grantor.

18. For the purposes of this Trust, "disability" shall mean a legal disability or the inability to provide prompt and intelligent thought to financial matters by reason of illness or mental or physical disability. The determination of whether the Grantor has a disability under this definition shall be made by the Grantor's most recent attending physician.
